What Is the Meaning of Farm-to-Table? At its heart, farm-to-table means that the food on the table came directly from a specific farm, without going through a store, market, or distributor along the way. It is not a regulated phrase, so it can be employed by anyone who considers their offerings to fit the definition. Similar phrases include locally-sourced, farm fresh, and farm-to-fork. Farm to Table Market "Bring Farm Freshness to Your Table Prior to Farm to Table, I worked as a purchaser for a produce chain store. Over the years, I got to really know a lot of produce suppliers and local growers. I learned about who are the best ones, how to pick the best produce, the seasonality of the produce and when to bring them in. I love what I do, and that passion and excitement lead us to opening up our first Farm to Table Market. Farm to Table FARM TO TABLE distributes locally grown farm products to area restaurants, commercial kitchens, cafeterias, and independent grocery stores. Our products include fruits, vegetables, cage-free eggs, herbs, cheese, grass-fed beef and lamb, pasture-raised chicken, and pork, all raised without hormones or antibiotics.
